Dear Ravi Kumar ,

Cookie agrees to design and develop a website for the client at no cost. In return, the client agrees to display a visible credit in the website footer stating "Developed by Cookie," which must remain unaltered. Additionally, the client agrees to redirect any individuals or businesses inquiring about the website or similar services to Cookie by sharing our contact details or website link. While the website content and branding will belong to the client, Cookie reserves the right to showcase the project in its portfolio. There are no hidden fees for development; however, domain, hosting, and ongoing maintenance (if required) will be the client's responsibility. If the footer credit is removed or the redirection terms are violated, Cookie reserves the right to take appropriate action, including removal of the site or charging applicable fees. By proceeding with the project, both parties acknowledge and accept these terms.

Thanks and best wishes,
